Almost Beyond Estimate.

The American people know little about China and her people. The population of China is almost beyond estimate. There are cighteen States and four Territories in the country, not more than one-sixth of which have ever been seen by the Caucasians. The whole of Cansixteen years of age. From Canton comes the Chinese emigrant to this country. There are only five men from the province of Foo Chow in the United States. There are estimated to be 200. 000 Chinamen in this country, all from the poorer classes of Canton, excepting a comparatively small number of the bettter class of Chinese merchants who have come over here and invested small capital to see it grow into fortunes.
